2020 Vision-3rd Quarter Update

Bringing Good News. Connecting In Christ. Building The Kingdom.

Pandemic in Cuba: Volume 2

COVID-19 continues to make this an unsettled era. As of October 15, 2020, here is a bit of the roller coaster ride.

Since our update in July, churches reopened, then closed again, and then reopened once more on a limited schedule (1 day a week on campus compared to our usual 6) with obligatory masking and Cuba's version of social distancing in place.

Inter-provincial travel has been opened or closed on several occasions, shutting down transport of all non-local goods and adding to food and supply scarcities that have impacted all people in every region. Simple household basics (shampoo, toothpaste, soap) are not available and food staples including rice and eggs (on an island full of chickens) are being rationed and stockpiled.

Times like these seem tailor made for Cubans. For several generations now, they have learned to make do with whatever is at hand. So, worship and the discipling of children, youth, and adults thrives.

Kingdom Growth- Spiritual & Physical

In the province capital of Matanzas, after years of wait and searching, we purchased a house for our church congregation. These homes serve our pastoral families, too. Pastora Idania, husband Tony, and two young adult sons have shared a cramped space for many years. Now they will have a home sufficient for living and serving.

Our farthest post from Jovellanos is in the province capital of Sancti Spiritu, where Pastors Eduardo & Analidia serve a growing church. We are currently at work on some urban community gardening and new facility construction.

In the village of Hoyo Colorado (Colorful Hole), Pastors Leo & Ivis are currently bringing leadership and vision to turn a small mission outpost into a thriving church. Recently, a team from La Senda went to Hoyo to restore/paint the house/yard and do additional construction and bench building for the worship area.

In Jovellanos, we are working on concrete pours at the main church and building a sunken auto repair bay and garage floor pour, as well as a new staircase at the Mission Guest House. Other plans are in the works. Details forthcoming.

Joy Overflowing

...to bind up the brokenhearted, proclaim the year of the Lord's favor: beauty for ashes, oil of joy for mourning, a garment of praise in place of a spirit of despair— Isaiah 61

The good news keeps coming in this season. Last time out, we promised an upcoming wedding and we don't wish to disappoint. On Sept. 4, La Senda missionary Pastor Ariel and health ministry leader/pediatrician Altinay were blissfully wed.

In July, we reported that a mini-La Senda Antigua baby boom had begun. The babies continue to arrive and are fast stealing the hearts of the people in our expanding community. Something about COVID times offers a clue that we may only be getting started here. We will see.
